What the town school committee had declined to tell after its meeting on Tuesday evening became known on Wednesday when it was learned that Dr. Louis T. Cassidy was to take the job of medical inspection in the schools and do it for the $100 to which the town meeting scaled down the amount of $1,000 that the school board had asked to carry out the work.

In addition it was learned that a school nurse is to be employed and that the committee had decided to have a woman to take this place has not been selected as yet.
With the expense that will be connected with this, one who was familiar with the plan, said that it might be found that the expense would be well up towards $1,000 mark, but it was considered that the work would be done so as to pass the approval of the state board of education and secure insurance to test the receipt of the $1,000 of school money that comes from the state.

Dr. Cassidy confirmed on Wednesday the statement that the appointment had again been tendered to him and said that he had accepted it. He expected that the duties would be taken up at once.
Once before the appointment had been offered to him, the day to be $100, and he had declined it. Now he said that there should be medical inspection in the schools and would take the appointment rather than have the town lose the state appropriation.

CHINAMAN CLAIMS
ALIEN RIGHTS VIOLATED.
Willamantic Laundryman Making Complaint in U. S. District Court.
Claiming that the constitutional rights and safeguards guaranteed to aliens in this country, and especially those born in this country, have been violated by the seizure of his private papers by an immigration inspector, Chun Dong Wong, a laundry worker of Willamantic, is making a contest before Judge Thomas in the United States court in Hartford of the order of United States Commissioner Richard F. Carroll directing that Wong be deported to China on the ground that he was unlawfully within this country.

The papers are an important part of the case, and were taken from Wong by Inspector John A. McCabe when he arrested the Chinaman in Willamantic Jan. 27, 1915, and were turned over to United States District Attorney Frederick A. Scott and used by him to discredit Wong's testimony and that of his witnesses in the hearing before Commissioner Carroll. The papers are now in Mr. Carroll's possession.

Judge Thomas said he would hear the evidence to be introduced in the hearing by Inspector McCabe before deciding the motion for the return of the papers.
Many Norwicheans are interested in the case.

OBITUARY
Mrs. Charles West.
Mrs. Ellen West, wife of Charles West, died at her home at Moosup, Tuesday evening aged 42 years. Mrs. West was born in Canada but came to Moosup as a child. She was married to Mr. West in 1880. She has three sons, aged 8, 10 and 12 years; also four brothers, Mack, Perkins, Arthur and two sisters, Mrs. Campbell of Norwich and Mrs. Rawley of Moosup.

Patrick John O'Connor, long a resident of this city, died Wednesday morning at 5 o'clock at his home, No. 1 Thayer street, following an extended illness.
Mr. O'Connor was the son of Timothy and Catherine O'Connor and was born in Colahan, Kerry, Ireland, on February 15, 1848. He came to this country with his parents, the family locating in Colchester. For a time Mr. O'Connor was a student at Bacon Academy.

Early in life Mr. O'Connor mastered the trade of a carriage ironer and located in this city. He was employed in a local shop for a time, afterwards entering business for himself at the corner of West Main and Thayer streets. He built the brick block Thayer street where he has resided for years.

In the year 1871 Mr. O'Connor was united in marriage with Mary Ann O'Sullivan, the ceremony taking place in St. Mary's church. Mrs. O'Connor died ten years ago.
In his political belief Mr. O'Connor was a republican and took much interest in public affairs. He at one time was caucuser in the revenue service, and for a number of years had served on the board of police of the West Chelsea district. He was the last of the charter members of Division No. 1, A. O. U. M. W. for a long time.

Surviving are three children, Miss Margaret E. O'Connor, Miss Nellie O'Connor, and Patrick O'Connor. There is also a niece, Mrs. A. Cronin of this city. Mr. O'Connor was the last of his immediate family.

Ever public spirited, mild in manner and of an industrious nature, Mr. O'Connor was well and kindly respected by many, and in his passing the community suffers a distinct loss.

Mrs. John Aldrich.
Following a period of illness lasting since the first of December, the death of Mrs. John Aldrich, of this city, Dr. John Aldrich, occurred at two o'clock on Wednesday morning at her home, No. 164 West Main street, New York. Her condition had been steadily serious until Sunday night when there was a sudden turn for the worse during which she was unconscious from which she did not rally.

Mrs. Aldrich was born in this city and her home was here until her marriage in August, 1900, to Dr. Aldrich. Since then her home had been in New York. She was a member of the schools of Norwich and graduated from the Norwich Free Academy, class of 1892, and the Norwich Normal school later. For two years she taught in the West Chelsea schools before going to the New York school of art and design from which she was also a graduate.

She is survived by her husband, her brother, John H. Perkins of this city, and by her mother, Mrs. Nancy Baker Perkins, wife of the late John T. Perkins.

Her husband is a prominent specialist in New York and is connected with the Roosevelt hospital and the Vanderbilt clinic in the New York hospital.

H. and A. Building of Heavy Concrete
Fifty-two tons of steel went into the first floor of the new five-story building that is now being erected on Chatham street by the Hopkins & Allen Arms Co.
Its construction in steel and cement is the heaviest that has been seen in any building erected in this city in recent years.

Warning for Veterinarians.
Cattle Commissioner Jeffery O. Phelps, Jr., has received a letter from H. H. Howard, commissioner of the department of agriculture of Massachusetts, stating that he was having trouble over the shipment of horses into Massachusetts from Connecticut without having first obtained a permit from his department.

Commissioner Phelps has had copies of Commissioner Howard's letter read and sent to the veterinarians of the state with a note in which he says: "If you trust you will carefully note the contents."

Middestown.—The annual meeting of the trustees of the Berkshire Divinity school was held Tuesday afternoon. Bishop Brewster, president of the school, presided.

TRY THIS FAMOUS
HAIR TONIC FREE
It Won't Cost You a Cent if It Doesn't Stop Falling Hair and Eradicate All Dandruff, Says The Ladies' Osgood Co.
Right away, today if possible, want you to try one of the most delicious, refreshing and invigorating hair tonics the world has ever known. Understand this is not a hair color or a dye, but a real tonic, a health while tonic called Parisian Sage. If you have dandruff and Parisian Sage doesn't remove every trace of it—money back from your druggist. If your hair is falling or you have terrible scalp itch, Parisian Sage will stop both or money back.

There isn't any two ways about it; Parisian Sage is one of the finest hair preparations ever known. It cures nearly every druggist without an axe to grind will tell you so.

It shows the present balance by putting life and nourishment into the hair, and the first application makes your head feel so good that you will once realize why we are so enthusiastic about Parisian Sage.

It's women's favorite hair tonic because it gives to the hair a brilliancy and lustre that fascinates and compels admiration. Lee & Osgood Co. has scores of people who use Parisian Sage regularly and will tell you all about it.

COURT ORDERS SALE
IN ATWOOD CASE.
Money That Was Put Into Property Was in Dispute.
A suit for partition or sale of property reached a decision in the superior court on Wednesday afternoon in New London. It was brought by Judge H. H. Atwood against his nephew, band Philip Clark Atwood of Willamantic from whom she secured a separation several months ago.

Judge M. A. Shumway gave judgment for the plaintiff after hearing the arguments, ordering a sale of the property by auction and report to the court by April 1st. As it is understood that there is a possibility that Mr. Atwood may buy out the share of his former wife, the court did not designate the one to carry out the auction sale.

The property in dispute is valued at $2,500. It is claimed that in 1912 Mr. and Mrs. Atwood bought the property for $1,500, paying $500 in cash and taking a mortgage of $2,000. Later the defendant paid off the mortgage of $2,000 in two payments of $1,000 each.

The point at issue centered about the exact amounts paid in the first payment of $500. The plaintiff claimed that she paid $1,500 of the amount and the defendant alleged that he paid $500. The amount in dispute being $200. It was settled by the court that the suit was brought, both parties having agreed to all other issues.

Attorneys C. Hadilla Hull and Clayton B. Smith appeared for the plaintiff and Mr. William Capen for the defendant. The case was argued for the defendant.

Snow Spelled Skating.
Just when there was some good ice for skating again, the snow of Tuesday night and Wednesday morning arrived to spoil it all.
